In the morning I got the draft which [contained] Mr [+++]'s corrections. I went to Mr Bapuji with Shriram Pant and got it altered by Sham [+++] Vithal, solicitor and friend of Bapuji. Heavy rains: On my way back alighted at Ms Bhaijivanji's and told him about [the] draft, Haribai came with Nari's[?] Photo sent by Keser[?] to be printed. Ponnuswamy also called. Bapuji came in the evening with the draft but could not see Govardhan Das as he said he was sleepy.

Called on Govardhan Das with Bapuji at 8 a.m. and told him that the draft as corrected by his solicitor was objectionable and proposed as an alternative to add that if I failed to pay the 1st instalment the whole amount becomes due at once. He agreed. But in the evening he said that his solicitor will have nothing but his own terms. Visited Jaymohan Das and Dr Balachandra to ask their advice.

Dr Mathai arrived in the morning. He appeared to be quite dejected and hopeless. In the evening visited Dr Balachandra with Mathai. He kindly promised to secure the money to payoff Govardhan Das to whose terms he said I should not agree. He advised Mathai to send an application to the municipal commissioner for advice in connection with the [+++]

Since Monday I have been very uneasy owing to Govardhan Das's attitude. In the morning went to Bapuji with Mathai for drawing up an application for the latter. In the evening called again on Balachandra to know if he could help me. He told me he would let me know the next day. Ms Jaymohan Das came in the evening and told me he could not succeed in raising the loan for me.

An extremely anxious morning. Did not know what to do as according to Shriram the Doctor seemed to be doubtful of giving any help. In the evening called on Ms Vishnu Pant-Doctor's brother-who promised to stand security in case the money could not be raised.
